

CLAS 150C1

PYRAMIDS AND MUMMIES

THE PHARAOH IN ANCIENT EGYPTIAN SOCIETY

SPRING 2026

BUILDING CONNECTIONS
WRITING & DIVERSITY

DR. ROBERT STEPHAN

CONTENTS

COURSE INTRO

Greetings from Dr. Rob!
Teaching Assistants
Course Introduction
Modality & Attendance
Learning Outcomes & Objectives
Readings & Tech Requirements

WORKLOAD & GRADES

Workload
Grading Breakdown & Scale
Late Work Policy

ASSIGNMENTS

Reading Responses
Disciplinary Perspectives
Lecture Quizzes
Movie Reviews
Exams
Signature Assignment

POLICIES & RESOURCES

Academic Policies
Student Resources
How to Get Help
Honors Contract

COURSE SCHEDULE

D2L.ARIZONA.EDU

GREETINGS FROM DR. ROB!

CONTACT

Dr. Robert Stephan
Associate Professor of Classics
rstephan@arizona.edu
(520) 621-3019
Learning Services Building #211

ONLINE OFFICE HOURS: VIA ZOOM BY APPOINTMENT (RSTEPHAN@ARIZONA.EDU)

Hi there, my name's Rob Stephan. You can call me Dr. Stephan, Dr. S., or Dr. Rob. Really any combination of my first and last name as long as it's got a "Dr." in front of it.

I'm an Associate Professor in the Department of Religious Studies and Classics here at the U of A. My research focuses on the economy of ancient Rome, while my courses cover everything from western civ to ancient athletics to classical mythology.

When I'm not droppin' knowledge in the classroom, I'm usually out in the desert hiking around or watching sports and eating profoundly unhealthy fried foods. In particular, I'm on the hunt for the best nachos in Tucson.

If you enjoy this course, make sure to check out CLAS 160D2 (Classical Mythology) or CLAS 240 (Ancient Athletics) or HUMS 150B1 (Mind-Altering Substances in the Ancient World) or CLAS 160B1 (Meet the Ancients) in the summer and winter sessions.

CONTACT POLICY

EMAIL

I'm easiest to reach via email (rstephan@arizona.edu), and I love hearing from you all. That's what I'm here for! Just make sure you've read through the syllabus thoroughly before you reach out.

TURN AROUND TIME

I'll get back to you within 48 hours (after that you can send a follow up). Usually it will be quicker than that (c. 24 hours), but make sure to plan at least 48 hours in advance if you're asking about assignments or tests or all that jazz.

COURSE INTRO

CLAS 150C1 PYRAMIDS AND MUMMIES

U OF A GENERAL EDUCATION
Category: Building Connections
Attributes: Writing & Diversity

Pyramids and Mummies focuses on the role of the pharaoh in ancient Egyptian Society and its portrayal in modern culture. It centers on the overarching question of how political rulers consolidate, exert, and maintain political power over their constituent populations. To do this, Pyramids and Mummies takes an interdisciplinary approach to Egyptian history, examining it from Natural Science, Social Science, Arts, and Humanities perspectives, assessing how Egyptian pharaohs utilized a diverse array of tactics to rule their kingdom. This course then moves from ancient to modern, analyzing the portrayal of ancient Egyptian kingship in the modern world, with a special focus on the ways in which issues of race, ethnicity, diversity, and equity are addressed in cinematic adaptations of ancient Egyptian culture and kingship. Upon completing this course, students will be able to critically analyze issues of political rule from a variety of disciplinary lenses, and synthesize these multifaceted strategies in clear, concise, and powerful written prose, and they will be able to address issues of race, equity, and inclusion in the reception and adaptation of ancient Egyptian culture.

ATTENDANCE

As an asynchronous online course, attendance is not factored into your grade.

However, you're still expected to watch the lectures, do the assignments, and actively participate in the class.

The modality for this course is ASYNCHRONOUS ONLINE. What that means is that there is no set time for us all to meet together for lectures and activities. Instead, all lectures are pre-recorded, and you can watch them whenever it works best for you. So convenient!

There are, however, deadlines for assignments, quizzes, and exams for this course. The deadlines for all of these things can be found on the D2L website for the class.

UA's Policy. The UA's policy concerning Class Attendance, Participation, and Administrative Drops is available at: <http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/class-attendance-participation-and-administrative-drop>.

Religious Beliefs. The UA policy regarding absences for any sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice will be accommodated where reasonable, <http://policy.arizona.edu/human-resources/religious-accommodation-policy>.

Dean's Excuse. Absences pre-approved by the UA Dean of Students (or Dean Designee) will be honored. See: <https://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/absences>.

COURSE MODALITY & ATTENDANCE

ACTIVE LEARNING

Because this course employs active learning, you're bound to make mistakes as you explore the perspectives of various disciplines.

That's totally fine! Don't work about being "wrong". Instead, do your best to be creative and thoughtful as you work through the assignments. Do that, and you'll be in great shape this semester.

Although this is an asynchronous online class, you're going to be expected to actively participate throughout the semester.

In this class, you're going to learn through two methods: active learning and scaffolded assignments. What means, in short, is that you're going to create your own knowledge by embodying various disciplinary perspectives. You won't just listen to me talk about how a humanist thinks about the past - you'll practice thinking like a humanist yourself.

Moreover, throughout the modules, you will acquire a series of skills that build upon one another. This is known as scaffolding. The skills you learn will then be combined at the end of the semester in a signature assignment that serves as a culmination of everything you've learned this semester.

TEACHING & LEARNING METHODS

University of Arizona General Education

LEARNING OUTCOMES

CLAS 150C1: PYRAMIDS AND MUMMIES

BUILDING CONNECTIONS

Students will demonstrate the ability to utilize multiple perspectives and make meaningful connections across disciplines and social positions, think conceptually and critically, and solve problems.

UARIZONA GEN-ED

The General Education program emphasizes interdisciplinary thinking, perspective-taking, and reflection. By considering ideas, challenges, and issues from various perspectives, students will learn to communicate more effectively, show empathy, and work together across areas of expertise and cultures to solve problems.

It's mission is to guide students as they develop into critical, innovative thinkers who are ready to lead cooperatively with interdisciplinary thinking & perspective-taking.

WRITING

Students will demonstrate rhetorical awareness and writing proficiency by writing for a variety of contexts and executing disciplinary genre conventions of organization, design, style, mechanics and citation format while reflecting on their writing development.

DIVERSITY & EQUITY

Students will demonstrate knowledge of how historical and contemporary populations have experienced inequality, considering diversity, power, and equity through disciplinary perspectives to reflect upon how various communities experience privilege and/or oppression/marginalization and theorize how to create a more equitable society.*

Course Objectives

HISTORY

Broadly reconstruct the history of ancient Egypt from the pre-dynastic period to the Roman period from lecture and reading source material.

WRITING

Compose written texts that critically analyze and synthesize evidence from multiple disciplinary perspectives to make arguments about the nature of pharaonic power.

PERSPECTIVES

Apply a variety of disciplinary lenses (i.e. Natural Sciences, Social Sciences, Arts, and Humanities) to identify and analyze strategies that ancient Egyptians pharaohs used to consolidate and exert power over their constituent populations.

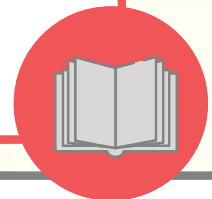

EVIDENCE

Employ archaeological (material) and historical (textual) evidence to create and support arguments about ancient Egyptian kingship and its impact on social, political, cultural, and economic history.

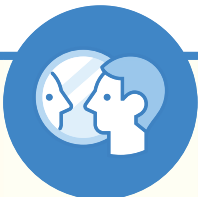

READING

Interpret texts from a foreign culture in light of their author, audience, genre, and context, and leverage those texts in support of an argument.

REFLECTION

Reflect on and discuss modern adaptations of ancient Egyptian pharaohs and compare and contrast these adaptations with historical evidence for Egyptian kingship.

DIVERSITY & EQUITY

Critically analyze issues of race, ethnicity, gender, and equity in modern film adaptations of ancient Egyptian kingship and culture.

OUTCOMES & ASSIGNMENTS

The chart below shows how the Student Learning Outcomes are articulated with the Course Objectives, Class Activities, and Graded Assignments for this course. If you'd like more detailed descriptions of the outcomes, objectives, activities, and assignments click the bolded category titles to take you to the relevant section of the syllabus.categories

Learning Outcomes	Building Connections	Writing	Diversity & Equity
Course Objectives	Disciplinary Perspectives Evidentiary Support Critical Reading Thoughtful Reflection Academic Writing	Evidentiary Support Critical Reading Thoughtful Reflection Academic Writing	DEI in Film Academic Writing Thoughtful Reflection
Class Activities	Lectures Academic Readings Disciplinary Overviews	Lecture Notes Reading Response Outlines Movie Review Brainstorms	Movies about Egypt Readings on DEI
Graded Assignments	Disciplinary Perspectives Reading Responses Signature Assignment	Disciplinary Perspectives Reading Responses Exams Signature Assignment	Disciplinary Perspectives Movie Reviews Signature Assignment

Course Readings and Technology

Readings

CLAS 150C1: PYRAMIDS & MUMMIES

All the assignments for this course are based on you reading the words of the ancients themselves. That's right, you get to read about Egypt from the scribes who wrote the Book of the Dead, from pharaohs like Ramesses the Great, and from the hand of Cleopatra herself! If you're part of the Pay One Price program or Inclusive Access, you'll have access to the book through VitalSource and D2L. If not, you can pick up an e-copy on VitalSource or a hard copy on Amazon.

NOTE: This course abides by the U of A Conflict of Interest mitigation policy. The author of this textbook makes $5 per unit sold and waives royalties beyond $500 per course per semester. You can read more about the U of A policy here.

Multimedia

For each module in this class, you'll be watching a modern movie about ancient Egypt. When possible, I'll provide a link to the media selections.

For most of the movies, however, it will be necessary for you to rent the selections from YouTube or Amazon. The total cost for all rentals should be less than $25.

About the Book

GIFT OF THE NILE: A JOURNEY THROUGH ANCIENT EGYPT

The textbook for this course is called Gift of the Nile: A Journey through Ancient Egypt. It contains translations of all the texts we'll use in this course. If you're part of the Pay One Price program or Inclusive Access, you'll have access to the book through VitalSource and D2L. If not, you can pick up an e-copy on VitalSource or a hard copy on Amazon.

A couple benefits you'll receive with this book:

- It's cheaper than buying individual copies of each text.
- All the ancient texts have been modernized into English that you, the college student, can actually understand.
- Each ancient text has thorough notes to help you figure out what's going on so you get all the references.
- It's got useful chronological, thematic, and text-focused overviews, so you get a sense for the important themes for the course in addition to the translations.

Book Description

Dive into the mystical world of Ancient Egypt with this comprehensive and engaging textbook designed specifically for college students. Delve into the heart of one of history's most captivating civilizations, where pharaohs ruled as gods and the Nile River flowed as the lifeblood of an empire. Through a unique blend of insightful commentary and direct translations of texts from the Ancient Egyptians themselves, this book offers a dynamic exploration of Egypt's rich culture, religion, politics, and daily life. From the grandeur of the pyramids to the intricacies of hieroglyphics, students will uncover the secrets of a society that continues to fascinate and inspire. Perfect for introductory courses in history, archaeology, and anthropology, this textbook invites students to engage directly with the voices of the past, fostering critical thinking skills and a deeper appreciation for the wonders of Ancient Egypt. Prepare to embark on a captivating journey through time, where the sands of the desert hold the secrets of a civilization that continues to captivate the imagination of the modern world.

Technical Prerequisites

CLAS 150C1: PYRAMIDS & MUMMIES

In order to succeed in this fully-online course, you must be comfortable working with technology. At a minimum, you should possess the following requisite skills:

- Ability to use the internet in an effective and efficient manner, including installation and management of browser plug-ins and add-ons and conducting searches;
- Basic knowledge of the operation of a computer, file management, and software installation, including copying and pasting, and sending and receiving emails with file attachments;
- Basic knowledge of creating and submitting files using Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat, or similar programs.

If you feel that you are missing any of these skills, please contact your instructor immediately.

Required Technology

In order to succeed in this fully-online course, you must be comfortable working with technology. At a minimum, you should possess the following requisite skills, software, and hardware:

- Computer that meets the minimum tech requirements;
- Reliable internet connection that you can access on a regular basis;
- Webcam, microphone, and headphones;
- Adobe Acrobat (or the ability to read and create PDF files), Microsoft Word (or the ability to open and read MS Word files), Microsoft PowerPoint (or the ability to open and view PPTX files), software that allows for movie creation (e.g., PowerPoint, iMovie, Windows Movie Maker, Adobe Premiere, etc.);
- Ability to use the internet in an effective and efficient manner, including installation and management of browser plug-ins and add-ons and conducting searches;
- Basic knowledge of the operation of a computer, file management, and software installation, including copying and pasting, and sending and receiving emails with file attachments;
- Basic knowledge of creating and submitting files using Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat, iWork or similar programs.

If you feel that you are missing any of these skills, please contact your instructor immediately.

Workload & Grades

For:

CLAS 150C1: Pyramids and Mummies

Workload
& Grades

Prepared by

Dr. Robert Stephan

Workload

Online courses are awesome since they let you work how you want, when you want, and where you want. Nevertheless, this course has numerous deadlines to keep track of.

Each of the 8 modules for this class (6 content modules, 1 midterm, 1 final) corresponds to 2 weeks in a normal course. In a normal semester course, you'd be expected to spend about 9 hours a week on the course – 3 in the classroom and 6 doing homework and studying. That's a little under 2 hours of work per weekday. Now extrapolate that out based on the number of modules in this course the length of this course. If you're in a 7.5 week session, that's around 4 hours of work per day; a 5 week session would be 6 hours of work per day, and a 3 week session would be 8-9 hours of work per day. So plan accordingly, manage your time, and bear down!!

PROTIP

If you're finding that the course is taking significantly more time, try saving time by (a) shorting some of the multimedia engagements (e.g., only watching part of a 2 hour movie), or (b) skimming lectures strategically for quiz information. If you're still having problems, get in touch with me and let's chat about it.

INCOMPLETE (I) & WITHDRAWAL (W)

Requests for incomplete (I) or withdrawal (W) must be made in accordance with University policies, which are available at <http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/grades-and-grading-system#incomplete> and <http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/grades-and-grading-system#Withdrawal> respectively.

Grades

GRADES

Reading Responses	20%
Lecture Quizzes	20%
Movie Reviews	20%
Signature Assignment	20%
Exams	20%

SCALE

A	≥ 90%
B	≥ 80%
C	≥ 80%
D	≥ 60%
E	< 60%

Late Work Policy

THERE IS NO EXCUSED LATE WORK FOR THIS COURSE. ASSIGNMENTS, QUIZZES, AND EXAMS CAN BE DONE OVER MULTIPLE DAYS SO IF YOU FEEL THAT COLD COMING ON, TRY TO GET EVERYTHING DONE BEFORE IT WIPES YOU OUT.

This course is a lot of work each day, and I know that people have jobs, families, video games, burritos, and lots of other important and delicious commitments. Deadlines are important, but being a little late with something isn't going to crush you in this course. Here's the policy:

TURNED IN

Within 24 hours
Within a week
Before the end of course
Never turned in

MAX GRADE

90%
70%
50%
0%

Late Work

GRADING TIME

I know you work hard to get your assignments done, so we'll work hard to get them graded and back to you in a reasonable amount of time. For regular assignments, we'll have those graded within a week. For exams, projects, and longer papers, we'll have them graded within two weeks.

INSIDE

Reading Responses

Lecture Quizzes

Movie Reviews

Exams

Signature Assignment

CLAS 150C1

ASSIGNMENTS

PREPARED BY: DR. ROB STEPHAN

READING RESPONSES

Overview. Each module you'll be reading an excerpt from an ancient source. This is cool! You're going to be engaging with texts that were composed more than 2,000 years ago. They can be tricky and difficult, and foreign, but reading the words of Julius Caesar or Herodotus or Homer or Augustus will give you a waaay better sense for Classical antiquity than reading some white-washed version written by a modern author. For each text, I'm going to put up a question to respond to. Post your response to the discussion question as a MS Word file or a PDF.

Assessment. To be eligible for full credit, the response must be at least 300 words, make a powerful argument, contain strong evidentiary support, cite the ancient sources at least 3 times, follow all formatting guidelines, and be turned in on time. The reading responses will be assessed as follows.

Criteria	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Criterion Score
Quality of Response	5 points Difficult to tell what the main idea is, prose makes response difficult to understand	10 points Argument and support exist but are basic, prose has multiple errors or incorrect tone	15 points Good, evidenced-based argument, nothing really wrong, but not out-of-this-world either	20 points Exceptional original argument, strong support, powerful prose	/ 20
Quantity of Response	0 points Less than half of word requirement	3 points Noticeably short of word requirement	5 points Just short of word requirement	10 points Met word requirement	/ 10
Use of Sources	0 points Missing more than one in-text citation and sources aren't used effectively	5 points Missing more than one in-text citation or sources aren't used very effectively	8 points Missing one in-text citation or sources could be used slightly more effectively	10 points 3 in-text citations and sources used effectively	/ 10
Formatting and Logistics	0 points 3 or more formatting errors	5 points 2 formatting errors	8 points 1 formatting error	10 points No mistakes	/ 10
Punctuality	0 points Turned in more than 1 week late but before end of course	20 points Turned in later than 24 hours but less than 1 week from due date	40 points Turned in within 24 hours of due date	50 points Turned in on time	/ 50

LECTURE QUIZZES

Overview. There are 6 content modules and 2 exam/project-based modules in this online course, each of which would correspond to 2 weeks in a normal semester-long course. For the content-based modules, you'll have several traditional online lectures. Take good notes during these lectures, as you'll be able to use them on the quizzes and exams.

For each module there will be a D2L quiz at the end. These questions are your "lecture quiz". Also, you have a great and benevolent professor! I'm letting you take the quiz as many time as you want AND I'm allowing you to use your notes on it.

Assessment. Each quiz is worth 10 points and you get one point for each question you get correct. Quizzes are automatically scored and entered into the gradebook instantly.

PROTIP

SINCE YOU'RE ABLE TO TAKE THE QUIZZES AS MANY TIMES AS YOU WANT, CONSIDER GOING INTO THE QUIZ, PRINTING OUT THE QUESTIONS, AND ANSWERING THEM WHILE YOU WATCH THE LECTURES. THEN GO BACK TO THE QUIZ, START IT AGAIN, AND INPUT THE ANSWERS YOU'VE RECORDED. BRILLIANT!

MOVIE REVIEWS

Overview. For each module you will produce a 150 word written movie review based on a prompt question or questions. Your written responses will be submitted as discussion posts, either by clicking on the "Discussions" tab on D2L or going directly to the relevant post via each week's module content page. . This is also your opportunity to engage with your classmates' ideas. For odd numbered modules, students with last names A-L will post an original review, while students with last names starting with M-Z will respond to someone else's review. For even-numbered modules it's the opposite. Discuss whether you agree or disagree and why, feel free to include your own opinions and ideas as well.

Assessment. Your movie reviews will be graded on a credit/no-credit basis. This is to encourage you to be thoughtful, opinionated, and creative without the fear of having to be "right". We will be checking to see if you've provided an on-topic, thoughtful answer, but this isn't a "right" or "wrong" sort of situation.

DIVERSITY & EQUITY

EACH OF THE MOVIE REVIEWS WILL FOCUS ON AN ISSUE RELATED TO DIVERSITY AND EQUITY WITH REGARD TO THE PORTRAYAL OF EGYPTIAN CULTURE AND IDENTITY IN MODERN AMERICAN CINEMA.

EXAMS

Midterm Exam. The midterm exam is going to occur after the 3rd module of the course. It's going to consist of factual multiple choice questions and one essay question. The multiple choice questions will test you on factual knowledge from the lectures, while the essay questions will ask you to synthesize material from across lectures. Oh, and you can use your notes on this as well! You'll have a time limit on the test, but feel free to use your notes along the way to help you with both the questions and the essays. Each of the multiple choice questions on the midterm exam will be worth 2.5 points and automatically graded. The essay question will be worth 50 points and graded based on the quality of the content (the precision and strength of the argument, the quality and quantity of the evidence backing up the argument, the quality of the prose putting forth the argument).

Final Exam. The final exam is going to occur after the 6th module of the course, after all the full modules have been completed. It will cover the entirety of the course. It's going to consist of factual multiple choice questions and one essay questions. The multiple choice questions will test you on factual knowledge from the lectures, while the essay question will ask you to synthesize material from across lectures. Oh, and you can use your notes on this as well! You'll have a time limit on the test, but feel free to use your notes along the way to help you with both the questions and the essays. Each of the multiple choice questions on the final exam will be worth 2.5 points and automatically graded. The essay question will be worth 50 points and graded based on the quality of the content (the precision and strength of the argument, the quality and quantity of the evidence backing up the argument, the quality of the prose putting forth the argument).

U of A Exam Regulations. Find the official University of Arizona policies here.

SIGNATURE ASSIGNMENT

Overview. As a Building Connections general education course, this course has a signature assignment that asks you to synthesize multiple disciplinary perspectives. For the Signature Assignment for this course, you will begin by learning about a variety of disciplinary perspectives and testing your knowledge through PlayPosit quizzes. Then, you will build upon the research and writing skills you have developed to synthesize the information and strategies from multiple disciplinary lenses (e.g., the social sciences, humanities, natural sciences, and arts) in order to put together a multi-faceted plan worthy of your position as pharaoh. Essentially, create a 750+ word written text (with images as well) that describes your keys to successful Pharaonic rule. In doing so, make sure to include strategies from all 4 disciplinary perspectives.

Assessment. You will be graded on the quality and quantity of your project. The modular components (PlayPosit quizzes and preliminary writing assignments) will be worth 60% of your Signature Assignment grade (10% each), and your Signature Assignment final project will be worth 40% of your final grade.

BUILDING CONNECTIONS

MAKE SURE TO DRAW UPON ALL 4 DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES IN YOUR PROJECT. YOU CAN USE YOUR TEXT AND IDEAS FROM MODULE 5 AS WELL, BUT YOU'LL LIKELY NEED TO EDIT, REVISE, AND EXPAND WHAT YOU HAVE.

CLAS 150C1: PYRAMIDS AND MUMMIES

SIGNATURE ASSIGNMENT

PREPARED AND PRESENTED BY

DR. ROB STEPHAN

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES AND CLASSICS PROJECT OFFICERS

YOUR PERSONAL GUIDE TO PHARAONIC RULE

THE BIG PICTURE

Over the course of the semester, you will create your own personal Guide to Pharaonic Rule, in which you embody the perspective of a pharaoh and pass on words of wisdom and ruling strategies for your royal descendants. In each module, you'll make progress towards your final goal, beginning with learning about several disciplinary perspectives, and then moving towards synthesizing those perspectives. In the end, you'll combine your words with images and create a royal pharaonic papyrus to cement your lasting legacy. Overall, I want you to have fun, learn some web design, focus on ancient evidence, and embody the a multidisciplinary perspective towards the past..

HOW IT ALL WORKS

Overview. I've designed this signature assignment so that you work on it little-by-little throughout the entire semester. Each module, you'll take one small step towards the final product, and if you keep up with the work for each module, it will all seem pretty manageable. Best of all, at the end of the semester, your signature assignment will basically be completely done and just in need of a little polishing. No end of semester crunch!

Assessment. You'll receive a grade for each of the six modular components and an overall grade for the final project. These will be worth 60% of your final signature assignment grade (10% each). Then you'll also receive a grade for the final project itself. This will be worth 40% of your signature assignment grade. The final project will be graded on your ability to come up with strategies that relate to multiple disciplinary perspectives and convey those in a powerful and persuasive manner.

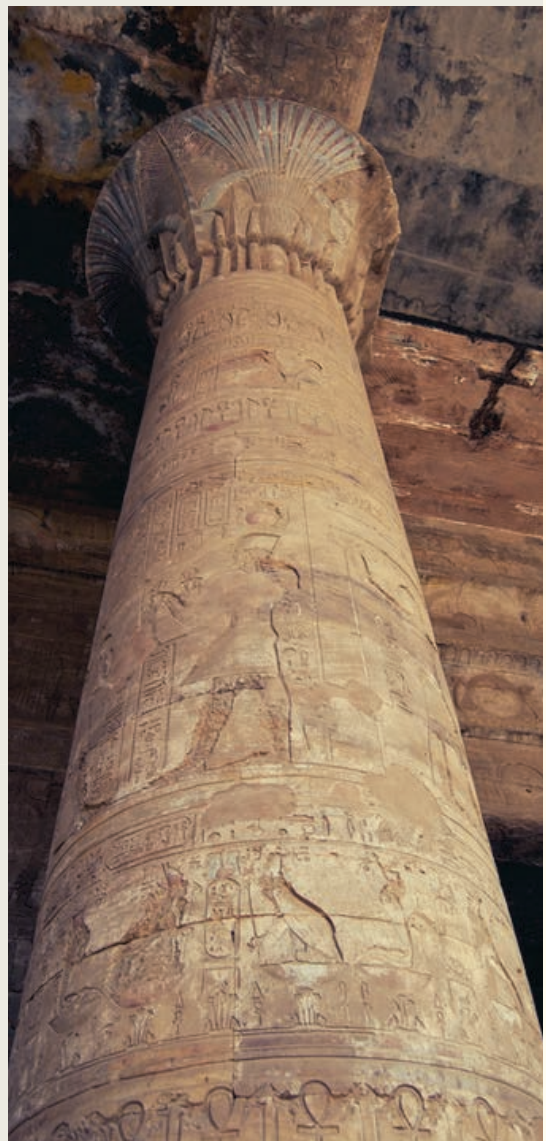

BUILDING CONNECTIONS

Your final project - the text & image papyrus detailing your guide to pharaonic rulership - should embody a variety of disciplinary perspectives. To do this, think of ruling strategies that might intersect with the following perspectives:

- Natural Scientist: environmental modification, nutrition, climate, etc.
- Social Scientist: labor systems, demography, population control, military, psychology, economics, etc.
- Humanist: literature, religion, language, history, archaeology, etc.
- Artist: artistic depictions on tombs, temples, pylons, control of artistic labor, etc.

A "natural scientist" ruling strategy, for example, might be to institute a large scale irrigation program to provide water for agriculture for the citizens of Egypt.

Overall, your text should have at least one ruling strategy related to each of the contain at least 750+ words of text as when you add it all up.

SIGNATURE ASSIGNMENT TIMELINE

MODULE	GOAL
MODULE 1 NATURAL SCIENTIST	LEARN ABOUT THE DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVE OF THE NATURAL SCIENTIST BY WATCHING A MINI-LECTURE AND COMPLETING A PLAYPOSIT QUIZ. THEN BRAINSTORM A FEW POSSIBILITIES FOR PHARAONIC RULING STRATEGIES THAT MIGHT BE OF INTEREST TO THE NATURAL SCIENTIST.
MODULE 2 SOCIAL SCIENTIST	LEARN ABOUT THE DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVE OF THE SOCIAL SCIENTIST BY WATCHING A MINI-LECTURE AND COMPLETING A PLAYPOSIT QUIZ. THEN BRAINSTORM A FEW POSSIBILITIES FOR PHARAONIC RULING STRATEGIES THAT MIGHT BE OF INTEREST TO THE SOCIAL SCIENTIST.
MODULE 3 HUMANIST	LEARN ABOUT THE DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVE OF THE HUMANIST BY WATCHING A MINI-LECTURE AND COMPLETING A PLAYPOSIT QUIZ. THEN BRAINSTORM A FEW POSSIBILITIES FOR PHARAONIC RULING STRATEGIES THAT MIGHT BE OF INTEREST TO THE HUMANIST.
MODULE 4 ARTIST	LEARN ABOUT THE DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVE OF THE ARTIST BY WATCHING A MINI-LECTURE AND COMPLETING A PLAYPOSIT QUIZ. THEN BRAINSTORM A FEW POSSIBILITIES FOR PHARAONIC RULING STRATEGIES THAT MIGHT BE OF INTEREST TO THE ARTIST.
MODULE 5 BUILDING CONNECTIONS	WRITE A SHORT TEXT BRINGING TOGETHER POTENTIAL RULING STRATEGIES THAT RELATE TO EACH OF THE FOUR DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES THAT WE'VE COVERED IN THIS COURSE.
MODULE 6 REFLECTION & PEDAGOGY	REFLECT ON THE MOVIES YOU'VE WATCHED, THEN CREATE A SHORT CLASSROOM ASSIGNMENT THAT MIGHT HELP TEACH YOUNGER STUDENTS ABOUT ISSUES OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION IN ANCIENT EGYPT.

SCORING RUBRIC

FIND OUT HOW YOU'LL BE SCORED ON THIS ASSIGNMENT

Criteria	Developing	Solid	Very Good	Exceptional	Criterion Score
Basic Components	0 points Missing 3 or more components (1) Minimum word count (2) Relevant images (3) Ruling Strategies (4) Disciplinary Connections	10 points Missing 2 components (1) Minimum word count (2) Relevant images (3) Ruling Strategies (4) Disciplinary Connections	20 points Missing 1 component (1) Minimum word count (2) Relevant images (3) Ruling Strategies (4) Disciplinary Connections	30 points Contains all basic components (1) Minimum word count (2) Relevant images (3) Ruling Strategies (4) Disciplinary Connections	/ 30
Building Connections	20 points Missing BOTH of the following: BOTH at least one strategy from one of the disciplinary perspectives AND any evidence for historical precedents.	30 points Missing ONE of the following: EITHER a strategy from one of the disciplinary perspectives OR any evidence of historical precedents for the strategies.	35 points Contains at least 1 strategy from each of the 4 disciplinary perspectives. Strategies are relevant but perhaps not all that creative. Historical precedents for some but not all strategies.	40 points Contains at least 1 strategy from each of the 4 disciplinary perspectives. Strategies are surprisingly creative, innovative, and relevant. Strong historical precedents for strategies.	/ 40
Writing & Aesthetics	10 points Severe issues with the clarity of the writing. AND/OR Papyrus lacking visuals.	20 points Writing is a little unclear or contains errors AND it lacks a historical tone. Papyrus looks okay.	25 points Writing EITHER is clear and error free but lacks a historical tone OR it has the tone but there are a few mistakes. Papyrus looks good but perhaps not stunning.	30 points Writing is clear, error free, and evokes the tone of ancient Egyptian pharaohs. Papyrus looks beautiful, as though it could be from the dusty tombs of the Valley of the Kings.	/ 30
Total					/ 100

Rubric Categories. You will be scored on the following categories:

- Basic Components: This will focus whether you've achieved the baseline components of the project: a text about ruling strategies at least 750+ words that includes both text and images. (30%)
- Building Connections: This will focus on the the strategies you've chosen to convey to your successor. You need at least one strategy related to each of the four disciplines discussed in this course. Obviously feel free to include more than one. The best examples will show historical precedent (e.g., "Like the Scorpion King, I will institute an irrigation program to bring water to my people."). Feel free to incorporate how it relates to the disciplinary perspectives if you feel it isn't very clear (e.g., "As a strategy focused on the natural environment, a natural scientist might view a strong irrigation program as the foundation of any successful civilization."). (40%)
- Writing & Aesthetics: This will focus on the overall tone of your text and the look of your papyrus. I've (generously!) provide a template and images for you to use, but feel free to go above and beyond. Good projects will be free of errors, coherent, and pleasing to look at. Great projects will be all those things and make you feel like you're reading something written by Hatshepsut herself. (30%)

MODULES 1-4: DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES

LEARN THE QUESTIONS, METHODS, AND IMPACT OF THE THE NATURAL SCIENTIST, SOCIAL SCIENTIST, HUMANIST, AND ARTIST

Overview. In modules 1-4, you will learn about the disciplinary perspectives of the Natural Scientist, Social Scientist, Humanist, and Artist (one in each module). You will watch a mini-lecture for each module and complete a PlayPosit quiz. Finally, you'll jot down a few ideas for pharaonic ruling strategies that might connect to the perspective you just learned about.

Mini-Lecture & PlayPosit. PlayPosit is a type of software that allows you to integrate quiz questions into the middle of a video lecture. All you need to do is click the link on the module webpage of D2L, and you'll be taken straight to the video and quiz. Pay careful attention as you watch, because the lecture will stop frequently (10 questions total) to ask you about what you've learned. Your scores will be automatically recorded and entered into the gradebook. Each of these is worth 10% of your larger Signature Assignment grade.

BRAINSTORM FOR THE FUTURE

YOUR FINAL PROJECT FOR THE COURSE IS TO DEVELOP YOUR OWN GUIDE TO PHARAONIC RULE, NOTING STRATEGIES THAT WOULD BE OF INTEREST TO EACH OF THE 4 DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES.

AFTER YOU WATCH THE VIDEO AND TAKE THE QUIZ, TAKE A FEW MINUTES TO JOT DOWN POTENTIAL STRATEGIES THAT MIGHT BE RELATED TO THE DISCIPLINE YOU JUST LEARNED ABOUT.

A "NATURAL SCIENTIST" RULING STRATEGY, FOR EXAMPLE, MIGHT BE TO INSTITUTE A LARGE SCALE IRRIGATION PROGRAM TO PROVIDE WATER FOR AGRICULTURE FOR THE CITIZENS OF EGYPT. A "HUMANIST" STRATEGY, ON THE OTHER HAND, MIGHT BE TO DEVELOP PROPAGANDISTIC LITERATURE UNDER THE GUISE OF RELIGION TO HELP CONTROL THE PEOPLE. THESE ARE JUST EXAMPLES - BE CREATIVE AND DEVELOP YOUR OWN.

YOU DON'T NEED TO SUBMIT YOUR BRAINSTORM FOR GRADING, BUT IT WILL COME IN HANDY LATER IN THE COURSE!

[illegible]

Submission. Submit your assignment as an MS Word or PDF file in the appropriate "Assignments" folder on D2L. Make sure to follow the formatting template attached to the submission folder on D2L.

- Natural Scientist: environmental modification, nutrition, climate, etc.
- Social Scientist: labor systems, demography, population control, military, psychology, economics, etc.
- Humanist: literature, religion, language, history, archaeology, etc.
- Artist: artistic depictions on tombs, temples, pylons, control of artistic labor, etc.

MODULE 6: REFLECTION & PEDAGOGY

DESIGN A CLASSROOM ACTIVITY TO TEACH ABOUT DEI AND EGYPT

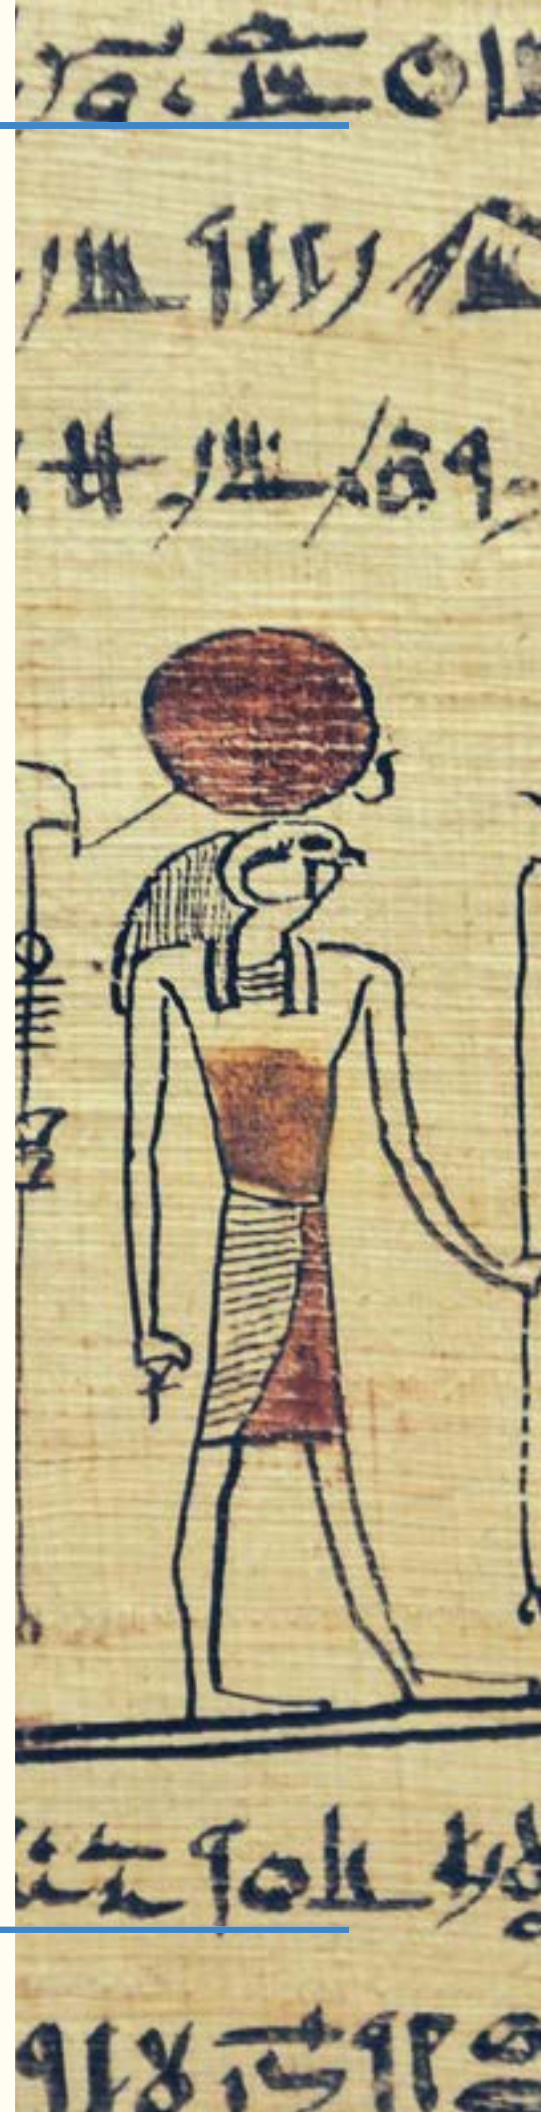

Setting the Scene. Behold, mortal! You have made your way out of the ancient world and into the modern classroom. For your legacy to live on, you must teach a new generation of Egyptologists. To do this effectively, it is necessary to make sure that this is done with an informed perspective on race, diversity, and ethnicity. This is your challenge!

The Assignment. For this assignment, you will develop a pedagogical activity for teaching students (any level you'd like - but mention what grade/level this is for!) about ancient Egyptian culture and kingship with an informed perspective on race, diversity, and equity. In movies this semester, you have seen how contemporary racialized groups have experienced inequality of opportunity with regard to representation in popular media. Now, I would like you to reflect on those experiences and develop your own teaching activity that focuses on issues of race, diversity, and/or equity while also helping teach students about ancient Egypt. Make sure to write at least 200 words. Be creative, have fun, teach the world!

Resources. To help you brainstorm ideas, I've linked to a book on pedagogy and the ancient world in the submission folder on D2L. Feel free to check it out; it might be useful for thinking through the assignment.

Submission. Submit your assignment as an MS Word or PDF file in the appropriate "Assignments" folder on D2L. Make sure to follow the formatting template attached to the submission folder on D2L. You will be judged on the quality of the submission, the quantity of the text, the formatting, and your ability to get it in on time.

SIGNATURE ASSIGNMENT FINAL PROJECT

COMBINE YOUR DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES INTO A MANIFESTO OF PHARAONIC RULERSHIP SO YOUR DYNASTY MAY PROSPER THROUGH THE AGES!

Setting the Scene. Behold, mortal! You have done it! In the midst of the chaos in the late 4th century BCE, you have outsmarted, outcompeted, and outmaneuvered the Egyptians, Greeks, and Persians to become the founding Pharaoh of the previous undiscovered 32nd Dynasty in Egypt. All hail, (Your Royal Egyptian Name/Title Goes Here)!

Having seen the rise and fall of numerous previous dynasties, your goal is to provide a written guide to effective pharaonic rule, so that your successors will perpetuate your dynasty for generations to come.

The Assignment. For the Signature Assignment for this course, you will build upon the research and writing skills you have developed to synthesize the information and strategies from multiple disciplinary lenses (e.g., the social sciences, humanities, natural sciences, and arts) in order to put together a multi-faceted plan worthy of your position as pharaoh. Essentially, create a 750+ word written text (with images as well) that describes your keys to successful Pharaonic rule. In doing so, make sure to include strategies from all 4 disciplinary perspectives.

JUST LIKE ROME, YOUR
SIGNATURE ASSIGNMENT
ISN'T BUILT IN A DAY. KEEP UP THE SLOW & STEADY WORK, AND YOU WILL
TRIUMPH LIKE THE LEGIONS OF ROME!

FINAL PROJECT COMPONENTS

Here are a few of the things you'll want to consider including in your Signature Assignment final project.

Make it Ancient. Make this look like something you might dig up in ancient Egypt! I've included a papyrus-looking PowerPoint template you can download on D2L. It has both a background, an old-style font, and a selection of images. Feel free to use it if you'd like. If you'd like to develop your own ancient looking text & image project, that totally works for me too!

4 Disciplinary Perspectives. Make sure you have at least 1 ruling strategy from each of the 4 disciplinary perspectives. For example Natural Sciences might relate to the environment, Social Sciences might relate to labor, Humanities might relate to literature, and Arts might relate to, well, art and iconography.

Use the Past. Feel free to use text from Disciplinary Perspectives 5: Building Connections. You'll need to revise and expand it, but it will make a great starting point for your project.

Evidentiary Support. Support your strategies with evidence from the readings and lectures. You can do this by relating your strategies to those of other Pharaohs. For example, "Just like Ramesses II at the Battle of Kadesh, I will ensure my army is full of mighty chariots!"

Text AND Images. Make sure you include some images as well - I've prepped some art you can include (inside the PPTX file), but feel free to find your own as well.

Submission. When finished, delete the intro and images pages from the PowerPoint file, only the pages you created should remain. The save the file as a PDF, and upload it into the submission folder on D2L.

Assessment. No citations are necessary, but if you do draw information from somewhere (a book, a website, the lecture) do make sure you cite it. Feel free to include it on a final page of your document if you do include some outside sources.

You will be graded on the originality, quality, and quantity of your work. Remember, this isn't necessarily a "right" answer here. Be thoughtful and creative. Support your assertions with evidence (e.g., Just like Ramesses II at the Battle of Kadesh, I will ensure my army is full of mighty chariots!).

The final thing you should submit should be a PDF file. First delete all the pages you didn't create (the intro slides of the PowerPoint file and the image bank slides at the end). Then go to "Save As" and click "Save as PDF". Upload that PDF to the appropriate D2L submission folder.

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

ACADEMIC POLICIES

In the Classroom, Online, and Beyond

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR POLICY

To foster a positive learning environment, students and instructors have a shared responsibility. We want a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment where all of us feel comfortable with each other and where we can challenge ourselves to succeed. To that end, our focus is on the tasks at hand and not on extraneous activities (e.g., texting, chatting, reading a newspaper, making phone calls, web surfing, etc.).

UA Academic policies and procedures are available at <http://catalog.arizona.edu/policies>.

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

INCLUDING:

- Classroom Behavior Policy
- Code of Academic Integrity
- Note on Selling course Materials
- Threatening Behavior Policy
- Notification of Objectionable Materials
- Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy

DR. ROB STEPHAN

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are encouraged to share intellectual views and discuss freely the principles and applications of course materials. However, graded work/exercises must be the product of independent effort unless otherwise instructed. Students are expected to adhere to the UA Code of Academic Integrity as described in the UA General Catalog. See:
<http://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/academic-integrity/students/academic-integrity>.

The University Libraries have some excellent tips for avoiding plagiarism, available at <http://new.library.arizona.edu/research/citing/plagiarism>.

NOTE ON SELLING COURSE MATERIALS

Selling class notes and/or other course materials to other students or to a third party for resale is not permitted without the instructor's express written consent. Violations to this and other course rules are subject to the Code of Academic Integrity and may result in course sanctions. Additionally, students who use D2L or UA e-mail to sell or buy these copyrighted materials are subject to Code of Conduct Violations for misuse of student e-mail addresses. This conduct may also constitute copyright infringement.

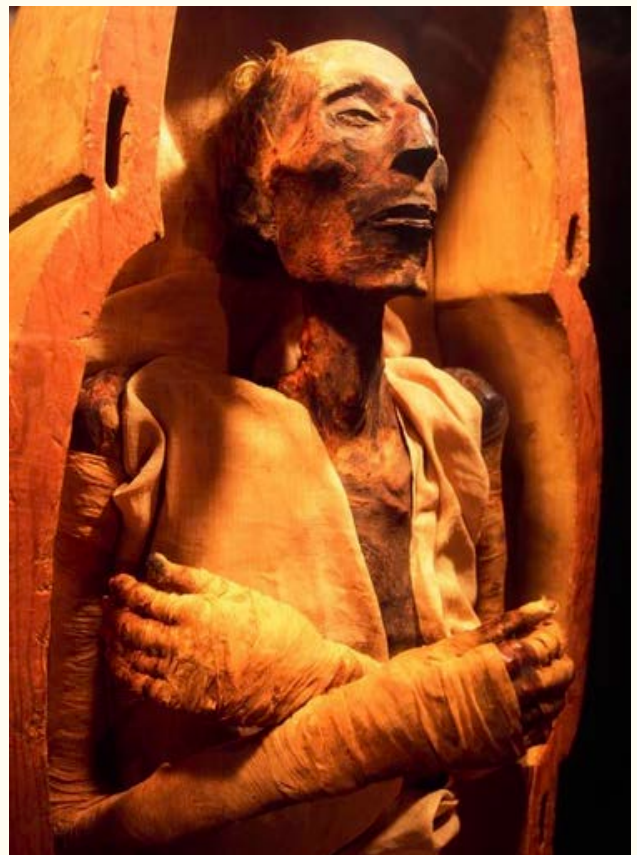

THREATENING BEHAVIOR POLICY

The UA Threatening Behavior by Students Policy prohibits threats of physical harm to any member of the University community, including to oneself. See <http://policy.arizona.edu/education-and-student-affairs/threatening-behavior-students>.

NOTIFICATION OF OBJECTIONABLE MATERIALS

Recommended language, if applicable:
This course will contain material of a mature nature, which may include explicit language, depictions of nudity, sexual situations, and/or violence. The instructor will provide advance notice when such materials will be used. Students are not automatically excused from interacting with such materials, but they are encouraged to speak with the instructor to voice concerns and to provide feedback.

NONDISCRIMINATION & ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

The University of Arizona is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free of discrimination. In support of this commitment, the University prohibits discrimination, including harassment and retaliation, based on a protected classification, including race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or genetic information.

AN INCLUSIVE SPACE

Our classroom is a place where everyone is encouraged to express well-formed opinions and their reasons for those opinions. We also want to create a tolerant and open environment where such opinions can be expressed without resorting to bullying or discrimination of others.

For more information, including how to report a concern, please see <http://policy.arizona.edu/human-resources/nondiscrimination-and-anti-harassment-policy>

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATIONS

At the University of Arizona, we strive to make learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience barriers based on disability or pregnancy, please contact the Disability Resource Center (520-621-3268, <https://drc.arizona.edu/>) to establish reasonable accommodations.

PREFERRED GENDER PRONOUN

This course affirms people of all gender expressions and gender identities. If you prefer to be called a different name than what is on the class roster, please let me know. Feel free to correct instructors on your preferred gender pronoun. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me directly in class or via email (instructor email). If you wish to change your preferred name or pronoun in the UAccess system, please use the following guidelines:

More information on updating your preferred name and pronouns is available on the Office of the Registrar site at <https://www.registrar.arizona.edu/>.

Preferred name: University of Arizona students may choose to identify themselves within the University community using a preferred first name that differs from their official/legal name. A student's preferred name will appear instead of the person's official/legal first name in select University-related systems and documents, provided that the name is not being used for the purpose of misrepresentation. Students are able to update their preferred names in UAccess.

Pronouns: Students may designate pronouns they use to identify themselves. Instructors and staff are encouraged to use pronouns for people that they use for themselves as a sign of respect and inclusion. Students are able to update and edit their pronouns in UAccess.

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

STUDENT RESOURCES

DEPARTMENT OF
RELIGIOUS STUDIES AND CLASSICS

DR. ROB STEPHAN

DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE'S STUDENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Student Assistance helps students manage crises, life traumas, and other barriers that impede success. The staff addresses the needs of students who experience issues related to social adjustment, academic challenges, psychological health, physical health, victimization, and relationship issues, through a variety of interventions, referrals, and follow up services.

Website

<http://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/student-assistance/students/student-assistance>

Email

DOS-deanofstudents@email.arizona.edu

Phone

(520) 621-7057

CAMPUS HEALTH

Campus Health provides quality medical and mental health care services through virtual and in-person care.

Website: <http://www.health.arizona.edu/>

Phone: 520-621-9202

COUNSELING AND PSYCH SERVICES (CAPS)

CAPS provides mental health care, including short-term counseling services.

Website: <https://health.arizona.edu/counseling-psych-services>

Phone: 520-621-3334

SURVIVOR ADVOCACY PROGRAM

The Survivor Advocacy Program provides confidential support and advocacy services to student survivors of sexual and gender-based violence. The Program can also advise students about relevant non-UA resources available within the local community for support.

Website: <https://survivoradvocacy.arizona.edu/>

Email: survivoradvocacy@email.arizona.edu

Phone: 520-621-5767

TECHNOLOGY SUPPORT

24/7 IT SUPPORT

Technical assistance is available 24 hours a day, with the exception of University observed holidays.

24/7 can help you with troubleshooting hardware, software, and any special course technology you are using.

Available by phone, chat, or help ticket.

Website:

<https://it.arizona.edu/service/247-it-support>

Phone: (520) 626-TECH (8324)

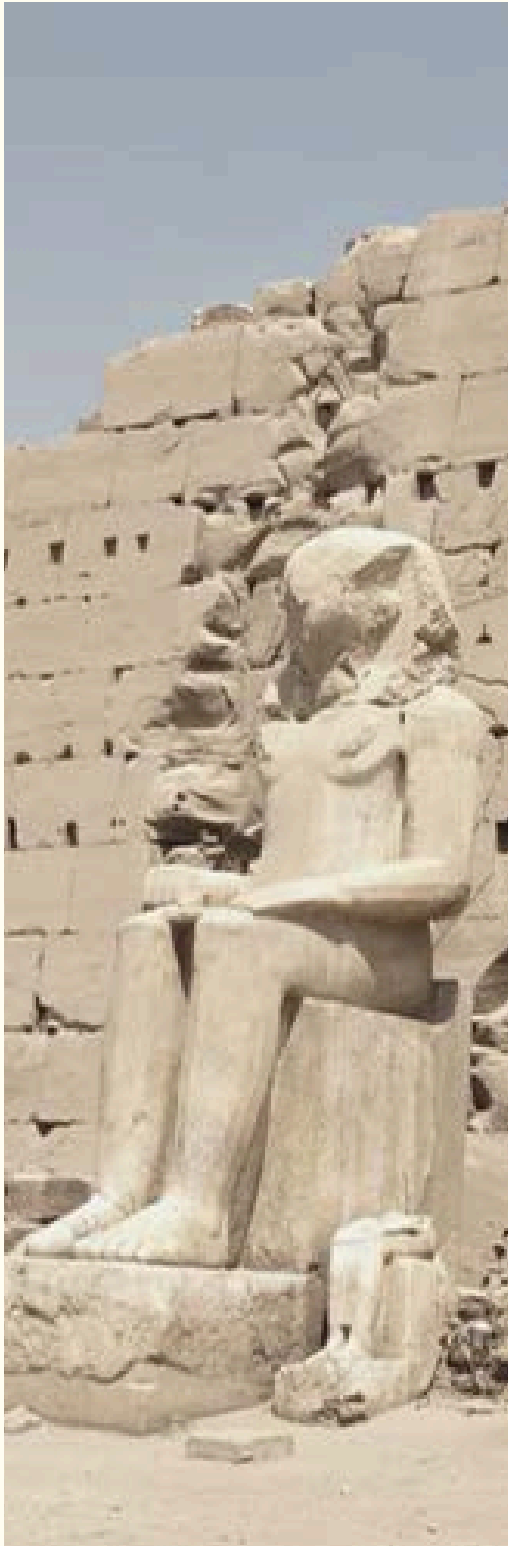

D2L HELP

If you are looking for a quick answer to a D2L question, D2L Support has created several tool manuals, tutorials and an in-depth FAQ for many of the common issues and questions related to our learning management system, Desire2Learn. <http://help.d2l.arizona.edu/student/student-home>

Need to talk to someone for more in-depth support? Various aspects of D2L are supported by different groups across campus, so D2L Help has put together a handy resource for finding quick and comprehensive support for any questions and issues that you may have.

<http://help.d2l.arizona.edu/form/student-contact-us>

TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES

FREE SOFTWARE

UA Software Licensing serves the University of Arizona campus community by providing public domain, bulk purchase, volume, and site-licensed software.

<https://softwarelicense.arizona.edu/students>

COMPUTER-BASED TRAINING

The University of Arizona's UACBT service (Computer-Based Training) offers 24/7 availability of FREE online training to over 1000+ courses and 98,000+ video tutorials, covering a broad range of topics and applications. Most tutorials have between five and fifteen hours of content. Each tutorial is divided into lessons from 2-10 minutes long on average. Each lesson is available as a Flash, QuickTime, Adobe Air, or Adobe Air for Linux movie. You can stop, start, rewind, and review each lesson as often as desired.

<http://uits.arizona.edu/services/uacbt>

CONNECTING TO VPN

For some of your online classwork, a VPN connection may be required for full access to certain UA resources such as the library databases. A Virtual Private Network (VPN) provides a secure connection from your computer to the network you are connecting to. The VPN client is the piece of software that handles the connection between your home computer, laptop, or mobile device and the UA network.

Instructions for downloading and installing the free software can be found on the Information Security website and 24/7 IT Support can assist you with the install.

NAVIGATING D2L

Watch this brief video (3:18) on how to navigate D2L.

WRITING SUPPORT

THINK TANK WRITING CENTER

The Writing Center offers free consultations by appointment with trained and certified peer tutors. Our tutors offer helpful feedback on any kind of writing at any point in the process—even before there are words on the page. During each session, tutors get acquainted with the student's writing, answer questions, identify patterns, make recommendations, and help the student come up with a plan for moving forward. Tutors can serve as a second set of eyes on personal statements, application essays, lab reports, theses, dissertations, resumes, creative writing, and even professional emails.

WRITING SKILLS IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

By Appointment: One free, 50-minute session every other week during the regular academic year.

- To schedule an appointment, return to our home page and follow the directions under Register for Tutoring. If you are new to WSIP be sure to register first.

Drop-in Tutoring: Free 20-minute sessions available twice weekly during the regular academic year; no appointment needed.

Small Group Tutoring: One free, 120-minute session every other week during the regular academic year. NEW: Participation in groups is free for 2 academic semesters. After that, a small fee applies.

HOW TO GET HELP

ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADES

email your professor

ABSENCES & LATE WORK

email your professor

COURSE WEBSITE

D2L Help

<http://help.d2l.arizona.edu/form/student-contact-us>

OBTAINING HARDWARE

U of A Library

<https://new.library.arizona.edu/tech/borrow>

OBTAINING SOFTWARE

U of A Software Licensing

<https://softwarelicense.arizona.edu/students>

TECHNOLOGY SUPPORT

24/7 IT Support Center

<https://it.arizona.edu/service/247-it-support>

(520) 626-TECH (8324)

WRITING SUPPORT

Think Thank Writing Center

Writing Skills Improvement Program

.....

INTERESTED IN MAJOR OR MINOR

Dr. Rob Groves

groves@arizona.edu

Major or Minor in Classics - COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES -

The University of Arizona's interdisciplinary Department of Religious Studies and Classics offers a major (B.A.) and a minor in Classics, with options in Classical Civilization, Greek, or Latin. For more information on the Classics major and minor, see <https://classics.arizona.edu>.

Classics majors have pursued careers in a wide variety of fields, including business, government, law, medicine, education, and social services. Many students have paired the Classics major with majors in a wide range of fields, earning a double major or dual degree. This provides a comprehensive undergraduate education and gives graduates a competitive edge when applying for jobs or graduate studies.

For questions about the Classics major or minors and/or to declare a major/minor, contact the Classics undergraduate faculty advisor, Dr. Robert Stephan, at classics-advising@email.arizona.edu or visit <https://classics.arizona.edu/declare>. You also can contact the College of Humanities Advising Office for any advising needs, at <http://advising.humanities.arizona.edu>.

BUT WAIT...THERE'S MORE!

The Department also offers a major (B.A.) and a minor in Religious Studies as well as a major (B.S.) and a minor in Religious Studies for Health Professionals (RSHHP). In addition, the Department houses a minor in New Testament Language and Literature. For more information on these degree options, see religion.arizona.edu and religion.arizona.edu/students/new-testament.

CLAS 150C1: Pyramids & Mummies

COURSE SCHEDULE

Prepared By:
Dr. Rob Stephan

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on
D2L under Content >
Start Here > Course
Schedule.

Course Intro

Pyramids and Mummies focuses on the role of the pharaoh in ancient Egyptian Society and its portrayal in modern culture. It centers on the overarching question of how political rulers consolidate, exert, and maintain political power over their constituent populations. To do this, Pyramids and Mummies takes an interdisciplinary approach to Egyptian history, examining it from Natural Science, Social Science, Arts, and Humanities perspectives, assessing how Egyptian pharaohs utilized a diverse array of tactics to rule their kingdom. This course then moves from ancient to modern, analyzing the portrayal of ancient Egyptian kingship in the modern world, with a special focus on the ways in which issues of race, ethnicity, diversity, and equity are addressed in cinematic adaptations of ancient Egyptian culture and kingship. Upon completing this course, students will be able to critically analyze issues of political rule from a variety of disciplinary lenses, and synthesize these multifaceted strategies in clear, concise, and powerful written prose, and they will be able to address issues of race, equity, and inclusion in the reception and adaptation of ancient Egyptian culture.

- Read the syllabus
- Review the course website
- Ensure tech requirements
- Complete syllabus quiz

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Module 1

Egypt's Earliest Days

In this module we're going all the way back to the time before the pharaohs, before Egypt was unified, and before the glories of the pyramids. All the way back to the time of the Scorpion King. In this module, you'll learn about the process of the unification of Egypt, and the ways in which early Egyptian pharaohs consolidated power over an ever-increasing swathe of land.

LECTURES

- Lecture 1.1: The Birth of Ancient Egypt
- Lecture 1.2: Egypt's First Pharaohs
- Lecture 1.3: Narmer: Unifier of Egypt
- Lecture 1.4: Hierakonpolis: City of the Falcon
- QUIZ: MODULE 1 LECTURE QUIZ

READINGS

- Manetho's Aegyptiaca
- Herodotus' Histories
- Diodorus Siculus' Library of History
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 1 READING RESPONSE

SIGNATURE

- Signature Assignment Overview
- Signature Assignment Module 1
- Overview: The Natural Scientist's Perspective
- MINI-LECTURE AND PLAYPOSIT QUIZ: THE NATURAL SCIENTIST'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE PAST

FILM

- Resources: Check the Prompt
- Read: Orientalism (Said 1978)
- Watch: Chuck Russell's The Scorpion King (2002)
- DISCUSSION POST: MODULE 1 MOVIE REVIEW

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Module 2

Age of the Pyramids

In this module we'll take an in-depth look at the Old Kingdom - the Age of the Pyramids. Rarely does it happen that a civilization's grandest monuments are constructed in the earliest days of its existence. But with ancient Egypt, the massive pyramids that soar above Giza all date to the Old Kingdom, around 2,500 BCE - almost 5,000 years ago.

LECTURES

- Lecture 2.1: The Old Kingdom: Age of the Pyramids
- Lecture 2.2: The First Intermediate Period
- Lecture 2.3: Djoser: Egypt's First Pyramid Builder
- Lecture 2.4: The Giza Plateau
- QUIZ: MODULE 2 LECTURE QUIZ

READINGS

- The Pyramid Texts of Unas (5th Dynasty)
- The Autobiography of Harkhuf (6th Dynasty)
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 2 READING RESPONSE

SIGNATURE

- Signature Assignment Module 2
- Overview: The Social Scientist's Perspective
- MINI-LECTURE AND PLAYPOSIT QUIZ: THE SOCIAL SCIENTIST'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE PAST

FILM

- Resources: Check the Prompt
- Read: Orientalism and the Representation of "Others" in the Mummy
- Watch: Stephen Sommers' The Mummy (1999)
- DISCUSSION POST: MODULE 2 MOVIE REVIEW

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Module 3

Shepherd of the People

In this module we'll arise out of the First Intermediate Period to see how Egyptian pharaohs re-unify the Two Lands and re-centralize power in the hands of the king. Along the way we'll see a distinct shift in the nature of kingship - one where kings become (just a little) less godly and a little more human, emphasizing their role as the shepherd of the people

LECTURES

- Lecture 3.1: The Middle Kingdom: Golden Age of Culture
- Lecture 3.2: The Second Intermediate Period
- Lecture 3.3: Amenemhat III: Shepherd of the People
- Lecture 3.4: Abydos: City of Osiris
- QUIZ: MODULE 3 LECTURE QUIZ

READINGS

- The Instructions of Amenemhat (12th Dynasty)
- The Dispute between a Man and His Ba (12th Dynasty)
- The Tale of the Eloquent Peasant (12th Dynasty)
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 3 READING RESPONSE

SIGNATURE

- Signature Assignment Module 3
- Overview: The Humanist's Perspective
- MINI-LECTURE AND PLAYPOSIT QUIZ: THE HUMANIST'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE PAST

FILM

- Resources: Check the Prompt
- Read: Gods of Egypt is Gloriously Gonzo AND Gods of Egypt is the Most Racist Film Ever
- Watch: Alex Proyas' Gods of Egypt (2016)
- DISCUSSION POST: MODULE 3 MOVIE REVIEW

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Midterm Exam

The midterm can be found under "Quizzes" or under the "Midterm Exam" tab on the Content page.

- The midterm will take place via D2L.
- Once you start the exam, you will have 50 minutes to finish it.
- There will be 20 multiple choice questions worth 2.5 points each. These will test you on factual data from the lectures.
- There will be 1 essay worth 50 points each. This will ask you to synthesize themes from across the lectures and readings.
- The midterm is open note; so make sure your notes are thorough and organized before you start the exam.
- There is no official study guide for the exam. But think of the major themes from each lecture. What did I spend the most time talking about? Also consider the types of quiz questions you were asked during the lectures. That should give you a sense for the concepts I find important.

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Module 4

Egypt as Empire

In this module we're going to journey beyond the borders of the traditional Egyptian homeland - beyond the Nile River Valley and Delta - into Nubia in the south, the Sinai in the east, the Levant in the north, and even all the way to Mesopotamia. The New Kingdom of Egypt was a time of expansion, powerful kings, and the subjugation of foreign cultures.

LECTURES

- Lecture 4.1: The New Kingdom: 18th Dynasty
- Lecture 4.2: The New Kingdom: 19th and 20th Dynasties
- Lecture 4.3: Akhenaten: The Heretic King
- Lecture 4.4: Thebes: City of Amun
- QUIZ: MODULE 4 LECTURE QUIZ

READINGS

- The Battle of Kadesh (19th Dynasty)
- The Book of the Dead
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 4 READING RESPONSE

SIGNATURE

- Signature Assignment Module 4
- Overview: The Artist's Perspective
- MINI-LECTURE AND PLAYPOSIT QUIZ: THE ARTIST'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE PAST

FILM

- Resources: Check the Prompt
- Read: An Egyptologist's Breakdown of Prince of Egypt
- Watch: DreamWorks' The Prince of Egypt (1998)
- DISCUSSION POST: MODULE 4 MOVIE REVIEW

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Module 5

A Game of Thrones

In this module we're going to look at the fallout after the New Kingdom collapses. Invasions by the Sea Peoples and the Nine Bows brought pressure from the outside, and the increasing power of the priesthood of Amun in Thebes gave rise to a formidable challenge to traditional pharaonic power. During these tumultuous times, foreign groups - Libyans and Nubians and Assyrians - all took royal power at various points in time.

LECTURES

- Lecture 5.1: The Third Intermediate Period
- Lecture 5.2: Late Period Egypt
- Lecture 5.3: Shoshenq of the Meshwesh
- Lecture 5.4: Naukratis': First Greek Colony in Egypt
- QUIZ: MODULE 5 LECTURE QUIZ

READINGS

- Victory Stele of King Piye (Nubian)
- Victory Stele of Esarhaddon (Assyrian)
- Victory Stele of Psamtik II and Nectanebo I (Egyptian)
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 5 READING RESPONSE

SIGNATURE

- Signature Assignment Module 5
- Overview: Building Connections
- ASSIGNMENT: BUILDING CONNECTIONS THROUGH RULING STRATEGIES

FILM

- Resources: Check the Prompt
- Read: Indiana Jones Must Retire AND Indiana Jones Denied Tenure
- Watch: Steven Spielberg's Raiders of the Lost Ark (1981)
- DISCUSSION POST: MODULE 5 MOVIE REVIEW

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Module 6

Greco-Roman Egypt

In this module we'll see Egypt come under the sway of foreign powers - the Greek Ptolemaic dynasty and the mighty Roman empire - that essentially put an end to Egyptian rulers holding the throne in ancient Egypt. Now Greece and Rome both undoubtedly have strong traditions and cultures, and yet once they enter Egypt, both the Greeks and the Romans adapt, in many ways, to the traditional ways of pharaonic Egyptian kingship.

LECTURES

- Lecture 6.1: Ptolemaic Egypt: The Great Synthesis
- Lecture 6.2: Roman Egypt: Emperors and Pharaohs
- Lecture 6.3: Cleopatra: Last of the Ptolemies
- Lecture 6.4: Alexandria: Jewel of the Mediterranean
- QUIZ: MODULE 6 LECTURE QUIZ

READINGS

- Plutarch's The Life of Antony (2nd c. CE)
- Caesar's The Civil War (1st c. CE)
- Egyptian Sources on Cleopatra (1st c. CE)
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 6 READING RESPONSE

SIGNATURE

- Signature Assignment Module 6
- Academic Example: An Educator's Handbook for Teaching about the Ancient World
- ASSIGNMENT: MODULE 6 DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES

FILM

- Resources: Check the Prompt
- Read: Gal Gadot as Cleopatra is Causing Misplaced Outrage AND Gal Gadot as Cleopatra is a Backwards Step for Hollywood
- Watch: Joseph Mankiewicz's Cleopatra (1963)
- DISCUSSION POST: MODULE 6 MOVIE REVIEW

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Final Exam

FINAL EXAM

- The midterm will take place via D2L.
- Once you start the exam, you will have 50 minutes to finish it.
- There will be 20 multiple choice questions worth 2 points each. These will test you on factual data from the lectures.
- There will be 1 essay worth 50 points each. This will ask you to synthesize themes from across the lectures and readings from both halves of the course.
- The exam is open note; so make sure your notes are thorough and organized before you start the exam.
- There is no official study guide for the exam. But think of the major themes from each lecture. What did I spend the most time talking about? Also consider the types of quiz questions you were asked during the lectures. That should give you a sense for the concepts I find important.

REMINDER: All due dates can be found on D2L under Content > Start Here > Course Schedule.

Signature Assignment

SIGNATURE FINAL PROJECT

For the Signature Assignment for this course, you will build upon the research and writing skills you have developed to synthesize the information and strategies from multiple disciplinary lenses (e.g., the social sciences, humanities, natural sciences, and arts) in order to put together a multi-faceted plan worthy of your position as pharaoh. Essentially, create a 500+ word written text (with images as well) that describes your keys to successful Pharaonic rule. In doing so, make sure to include strategies from all 4 disciplinary perspectives. questions you were asked during the lectures. That should give you a sense for the concepts I find important.

Subject to Change Policy

Information contained in the course syllabus, other than the grade and absence policy, may be subject to change with advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.